SCHOOL NEWS

The Torrance High School grounds are becoming more beautiful each day. A lawn is now planted in front of the building, while across the back and along the sides are flowers. It will not be long before some of the flowers will bloom, and in the fall there will be many asters. The biggest surprise of the year was handed to the students of T. H. S. last night when the baseball team defeated Redondo by the score of 5-1. This is the first time that we have ever beaten Redondo in baseball. "Stud" Zuber pitched the whole game, and did well. Ray Steppy played well as shortstop. Ben Townsend was the outstanding star in the outfield. When the San Pedro string sextette gave a program at an auditorium call Wednesday morning Torrance High was afforded a rare musical treat. Besides the sextette numbers, two piano solos, a reading and a violin selection added spice to the program. The numbers were heartily applauded by the student body, showing a deep appreciation of this opportunity to hear really good music.

KIWANIANS ENJOY LADIES' NIGHT PARTY

Kiwanians dispensed themselves and entertained Kiwanesses at a delightful dinner and dance at the Lomita Country Club last Friday night. A program of rollicking entertainment kept the dinner guests in an uproar for three hours. One feature of the evening was a duet by Verne Babcock and Henry Ubricht, who rendered a song hit of Jimmie King's composition. They paid fines, justly imposed. The Rappaport brothers, garbed in green tile hats and green silk coats, made a hit when they sang "My Wild Irish Rose."

Ernie Tomkins entertained with a clog dance and proved that he is not to be classed as past middle age. Two-minute talks were given by Ben Rappaport, Arthur Finster and Henry Ubricht on "My Boyhood Ambition and What I Turned Out to Be."

It was announced just as the dinner started that "Bob" Deininger had found his razor. The statement was verified when the mayor appeared. He shocked the assembly with a duet, "My Boyhood Ambition and What I Turned Out to Be."

Charles Schultz spoke on Ford products. He spoke briefly by request of Jimmie King, chairman. A thinly garbed dancer favored with a Hula-Hula presentation Bob Deininger threw a nickel to the floor. The dancer took off "her" wig. She was a he. Bob picked up his nickel.

Fred Hopkins favored with a reading. Miss Nyla Tansey played a piano solo and Mrs. Mary Lingenfelter Thompson sang. During an intermission between dancing that followed Charles Rippe gave an exhibition of the Charleston. "You'd be surprised." Oh, yes, George Proctor spoke, too.

Easter Motif Predominates at Luncheon at Mrs. Groves' Home

The monthly conference of the presidents of Section D, P.-T. A., was held last Friday at the home of Mrs. Gordon L. Groves, councillor.

At the delightfully appointed luncheon which preceded the business meeting the Easter motif was followed in the decoration of rooms and tables. Dainty Easter baskets marked places for the guests.

At the business meetings the minutes of all previous conferences were read, thus affording new members members who had missed conferences an opportunity to learn what has been accomplished during the past year.

Problems pertinent to the affairs of the various Parent-Teacher Associations were discussed at the round table.

Mrs. W. A. Miller, councillor of Section A, was guest of honor. Other guests were Mrs. W. K. Weber, president of Eshelman P.-T. A.; Mrs. A. F. Welton, sub-councillor; Mrs. H. B. Linderman, membership subchairman; and Mrs. C. H. Meers.
